Section 1: Qualification: ~~Each building site deed owner shall be a member of the corporation.~~ Only owners of building sites in River Plantation shall be members of this Corporation.

Section 2: Voting: ~~Each members shall be entitled to one vote per building site owned by the member, however only one vote for each building site per family unit shall be permitted.~~ The owners of each building site shall be entitled to cast only one vote on matters for which the members may vote. No owner of a building site for which any amount of maintenance assessment or dues is delinquent shall be entitled to vote or to make, second or discuss any matter or motion at any membership meeting. If a building site is owned by more than one person or if such building site is owned by a corporation or partnership, then when requested by the Secretary of any meeting, such owners must designate, in writing, one person to cast the vote for that building site.

Section 3: Annual Meeting: The annual meeting of the members shall be held on the third Thursday in January each year for the purpose of electing directors and for the transaction of any and all such other business which may be brought before or submitted to the meeting. All annual meetings shall be held at the time and place designated in the notice of the meeting which shall be mailed to the members not less than ten (10) days and no more than thirty (30) days prior to the date of such annual meeting.

Section 4: Regular Meetings: A regular meeting of the members shall be held every three months at the date, time and place designated in the notice of the meeting which shall be posted within River Plantation at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the meeting.

Section 5: Special Meetings: Special meetings of the members may be called by a majority vote of the Board of Directors. Notice of each special meeting of the members, stating the date, time and place thereof and indicating briefly the purpose, shall be posted within River Plantation at least ~~five (5)~~ ten (10) but not more than sixty (60) days prior to the date of the meeting.

Section 6: Quorum: Fifty (50) of the voting members, present in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for all purposes at any meeting of the members.

Section 7: Organization: The President, and in the event of his absence, a Vice President, shall call meetings of the members to order and shall act as Chairman of such meetings. In the absence of the President and a Vice President, the members present may appoint a chairman. The Secretary shall record the minutes of the meeting and in the absence of the Secretary, the presiding officer may appoint any person to act as Secretary of the meeting.

ARTICLE V

Board of Directors

Section 1: Number and Term of Office: The business and property of the ~~Company~~ Corporation shall be managed and controlled by the Board of Directors, and subject to the restrictions imposed by law, by the charter, or by these by-laws, the Board of Directors may exercise all of the power of the ~~Company~~ Corporation.

The number of directors shall be fifteen (15) provided that the number may be increased or decreased from time to time by an amendment to these by-laws, but no decrease shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director. Of the initial fifteen directors,, five (5) will have one (1) year terms of office, five (5) will have two (2) year terms of office, and five (5) will have three (3) year terms. At the end of these terms, each director will be elected for three (3) year terms.

Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors shall be filled at the next regular or annual meeting by an affirmative vote of a majority of the voting members provided notice of such election has been published in the notice of such meeting.

Section 2: Meeting of Directors: The Directors may hold their meetings in such place or places that the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

Section 3: First Meeting: The newly elected Board of Directors may hold its first meeting for the purpose of organization and the transaction of business, if a quorum is present, immediately after the annual meeting of the members, or adjourned annual meeting of the members, and no notice of such meeting shall be necessary.

Section 4: Election of Officers: At the first meeting of the Board of Directors in each year at which a quorum is present, the Board of Directors shall proceed to the election of the officers of the ~~Company~~ Corporation. No notice of waiver of notice of any such first meeting shall be required or necessary if it be held immediately after either the annual meeting or the adjourned annual meeting of the members, any and all business of any nature or character may be transacted at such first meeting.

Section 5: Regular Meeting: Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at such time and place as shall be designated, from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors. Notice of such regular meetings shall not be required.

Section 6: Special Meetings: Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held whenever called by the President, Vice President, Secretary or a majority of the directors then in office. Notice of each special meeting shall be given by any officer of the ~~Company~~ Corporation by telegraph, mail, telephone or personal delivery to each director at his residence or usual place of business at least two days prior to the meeting. Unless otherwise indicated in the notice thereof, any and all business may be transacted at a special meeting. At any meeting at which every director shall be present, even though without any notice, any business may be transacted.

Section 7: Quorum: The majority of the directors then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but if at any meeting of the Board of Directors there be less than a quorum present, the majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without notice, other than by announcement at the meeting, until a quorum be present or in attendance thereat. The act of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is in attendance shall constitute the act of the Board of Directors, except as otherwise provided by law, the character of the Corporation, or by these By-laws.

Section 8: Order of Business: At meetings of the Board of Directors, business shall be transacted in such order as from time to time the Board of Directors may determine. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, the President shall preside, and in the absence of the President, a Chairman shall be chosen from the directors present. The Secretary of the Corporation shall act as Secretary of all meetings of the Board of Directors, but in the absence of the Secretary, the presiding officer may appoint any person to act as Secretary of the meeting.

Section 9: Services: No director or officer of the Corporation shall be required to devote his time or render services exclusively to the Corporation. Each director and officer of the Corporation shall be free to engage in any and all other businesses and activities either similar or dissimilar to the business of the Corporation without liability to this Corporation. Likewise, each and every director and officer of the Corporation shall be entirely free to act for and serve any other corporation or corporations, entity or entities, in any capacity or capacities and become a director or officer of the corporation or corporations, entity or entities, whether or not the purposes, business and activities thereof be similar or dissimilar to the purposes, business or activities of this Corporation, without breach of duty to this Corporation or its members and without liability or any character or description to the Corporation or its members. No contract or other transaction of this Corporation shall ever be affected by the fact that any director or officer of the Corporation is interested in, or connected with any party to such contract or transaction, or is a party to such contract or transaction, provided that such contract or transaction shall be approved by a majority of the directors present at a meeting of the Board of Directors at which such contract or transaction shall be authorized or confirmed, which majority shall consist of directors not so interested or connected.

Section 10: Indemnification of Officers and Board of Directors: The Corporation shall indemnify any person who serves as director, officer, agent, or employee of the Corporation against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by such person, and any amount paid in satisfaction of judgment in connection with any action, suit, or proceeding in which he has been made a party by reason of being or having been such a director, officer, agent or employee and said Corporation shall provide him with competent counsel at no additional charge to him to represent him in said matters, except in relation to matters as to which he shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceedings to be liable for gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of his duties.

Section 11: Procedures for Additional Indemnification: The Corporation also may reimburse to any such person described in the proceeding paragraph the reasonable cost of settlement of any such proceedings, if it is found by a majority of the directors not involved in the proceeding that it was in the interest of the Corporation to make such settlement and that such person is not guilty of gross negligence or willful misconduct. These rights of indemnification and reimbursement shall be exclusive of any other rights to which such person may be entitled by law, bylaw, agreement, shareholders vote or otherwise.

ARTICLE VI

Officers

Section 1: Titles and Term of Office: The officers of the Corporation shall be a President (who shall be a director), Vice President, a Secretary, a Treasurer and such other officers, as the Board of Directors may from time to time elect or appoint. One person may hold more than one office. All officers shall be subject to removal, with or without cause, at any time, by vote of a majority of the whole Board of Directors. A vacancy in the office of any officer shall be filled by vote a majority of the directors then in office.

Section 2: Powers and Duties of the President: The President, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, shall be in general charge of the affairs of the Corporation in the ordinary course of its business; he shall preside at all meetings of the members and of the Board of Directors; he may make, sign and execute all deeds, conveyances, assignments, bonds, contracts, and other obligations and any and all other instruments and papers of and kind or character in the name of the Company Corporation; and, he shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time be assigned to him by the Board of Directors.

Section 3: Vice Presidents: The Vice President shall have the usual powers and duties pertaining to his office together with such other powers and duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors, and the Vice President shall have and exercise the powers of the President during that officer's absence or inability to act. Any action taken by the Vice President in the performance of the duties of the President shall be conclusive evidence of the absence or inability to act of the President at the time such action was taken.

Section 4: Treasurer: The Treasurer shall have custody of all of the funds and securities of the Corporation which come into his hands. When necessary and proper, he may endorse, on behalf of the Corporation, for collection, checks, notes and other obligations and shall deposit the same to the credit of the Corporation in such bank or banks or depositories as shall be designated in the manner described by the Board of Directors; he may sign all receipts and vouchers for payments made to the Corporation, either alone or jointly with such officer as is designated by the Board of Directors; whenever required by the Board of Directors, he shall render a statement of his cash account; he shall enter or cause to be entered regularly on the books of the Corporation to be kept by him for that purpose full and accurate accounts of all moneys received and paid out on account of the Corporation; he shall at all reasonable times exhibit his books and accounts of all moneys received and paid out on account of the Corporation; he shall at all reasonable times exhibit his books and accounts to any director of the Corporation during business hours; he shall perform all acts incident to the position of Treasurer subject to the control of the Board of Directors; he shall, if required by the Board of Directors, give such bond for the faithful discharge of his duties in such form as the Board of Directors may require.

Section 5. Secretary. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the members in books provided for that purpose; he shall attend to the giving and serving of all notices; he may sign with the President or Vice President in the name of the Corporation all contracts, conveyances, transfers, assignments, authorizations and other instruments of the Corporation and affix the seal of the Corporation thereto. He shall have charge of and maintain and keep such books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct, all of which shall at all reasonable times be open to the inspection of any director upon request at the office of the Corporation during business hours and he shall in general perform all of the duties incident to the office of Secretary subject to the control of the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Committees: There shall be at least the following committees appointed each year by the President: (1) Security, (2) Grounds and Equipment, (3) Finance, (4) Nominating and (5) Architectural Review. There will also be those Ad Hoc Committees as may be formulated by majority votes of the Board of Directors.

Section 7. Collector of Revenues: There shall be a Collector of Revenues contracted by a majority vote of the Board of Directors. This position will be compensated by whatever contracted amount that is entered into by the majority vote of the Board of Directors. The duties of the Collector of Revenue will include collection of those maintenance fees deemed necessary to operate the Corporation. Those duties shall also include providing current information to those certain Title Companies requesting status of Lot Owners' Maintenance Fee accounts.

ARTICLE VII

Contracts, Checks, Drafts, Bank Accounts, Etc.

Section 1: The Board of Directors, except as in these by-laws otherwise provided, may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents, in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances; and, unless so authorized by the Board of Directors or expressly authorized by the By-laws, no officer or agent or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the Corporation by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or to render it liable pecuniarily for any purpose or to any amount.

Section 2: No loan shall be contracted on behalf of the Corporation, and no negotiable papers shall be issued in its name unless authorized by the vote of the Board of Directors.

Section 3: All checks, drafts and other orders for the payment of money out of the funds of the Corporation, and all notes and other evidences of indebtedness of the Corporation shall from time to time be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4: All funds of the Corporation not otherwise employed shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the Corporation in such banks or other depositories as the Board of Directors may select and for the purpose of such deposit the President, a Vice-President, the Treasurer, the Secretary or any other officer or agent or employee of the Corporation to whom such power may be delegated by the Board of Directors, may endorse, assign and deliver checks, drafts and other orders for the payment of money which are payable to the order of the Corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

Association Dues

Section 1: Garbage Service. The Corporation may contract with any one or more companies to provide for garbage service for the members of the Corporation who agree to pay their reasonable share of the cost of such service. The Board of Directors shall determine the share of such garbage collection costs for each building site, and shall send periodic bills to all building site owners who subscribe for such service. For any owner who fails, for any reason, to pay the garbage service for their building site, the Association shall instruct its contractor to cease garbage collection services for such building site.

Section 2: Other Funds. In addition to charges for garbage collection services, the Association may, upon advance determination by the Board of Directors and upon approval by the majority vote of the members voting in person or by proxy at any regular or annual meeting of the members, charge the members additional sums to pay for matters for the benefit of River Plantation, such as bridge, culvert and road repair, weather damage repair, street signs, lights, and markings, office facilities and equipment for the Corporation, constructing and maintaining recreational facilities for the residents of the subdivision including, but not limited to children's recreational areas and facilities, and hike and bike trails, and other similar items. Such additional items shall be billed to the members on any basis and at any time determined by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VIII IX

Miscellaneous Provisions

Section 1 : Fiscal Year: The fiscal year of the Corporation shall end at midnight on June 30, of each calendar year.

Section 2: Seal: The seal of the Corporation shall be circular in form and shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation.

Section 3: Notice and Waiver of Notice: Whenever any notice whatsoever is required to be given under the provisions of these by-laws, said notice shall be deemed to be sufficient if given by depositing the same in a post office box in a sealed, postpaid wrapper addressed to the person entitled thereto at his post office address, as it appears on the books of the Corporation, and such notice shall be deemed to have been given on the day of such mailing. A waiver of notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to notice.

Section 4: Resignations: Any director or officer may resign at any time. Such resignation shall be made in writing and shall take effect at the time specified therein; or, if no time be specified, at the time of its receipt by the President or Secretary. The acceptance of the resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective, unless expressly so provided in the resignation.

Section 5: At all membership meetings, Roberts Rules of Order will be the governing procedure. The Vice President or a person designated by the President shall be the Parliamentarian interpreting and enforcing said Rules of Order.

Section 6: At the third membership meeting of each and every year, the books and records of the corporation shall be brought to said meeting by the Secretary of the Corporation and be open for examination by any and all members.
