

BYLAWS OF
VILLAGES AT LAKEPOINTE COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION, INC.
A NON-PROFIT CORPORATION

VILLAGES AT LAKEPOINTE COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION, INC. (the "Association") is the association referred to in the Villages at Lakepointe Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions (the "Restrictions"), filed in the Official Public Records of Real Property of Houston, Harris County, Texas. The terms used in these Bylaws shall have the same meanings given to them in the Restrictions, unless otherwise specifically provided herein. In the event of any conflict between the terms and provisions of these Bylaws and the Restrictions, the Restrictions shall control.

ARTICLE I.

REGISTERED AND PRINCIPAL OFFICE

1.1 Registered Office and Agent. The registered office of the Association is located at 9575 Katy Freeway, Suite 130, Houston, Harris County, Texas 77024, and the name of the registered agent of the Association at such address is Association Management, Inc.

1.2 Principal Office. The principal office of the Association shall be located in the City of Houston, Harris County, Texas.

1.3 Other Offices. The Association may also have offices at such other places both in or out of the State of Texas as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or the business of the Association may require.

ARTICLE II.

MEMBERS, MEETINGS AND VOTING RIGHTS

2.1 Members.

(a) Each and every person, persons, or legal entity who shall own any Lot, shall automatically be, and must remain, a Member of the Association. Such membership shall be appurtenant to each Lot and may not be severed from or held separately therefrom. Provided, that any person or entity who holds such an interest merely as security for the performance of any obligation shall not be a Member. No Member shall have any right or interest in the assets of the Association, including, without limitation, any right to distribution of assets in the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Association, whether voluntary or involuntary.

(b) Subject to Article II of the Restrictions, the Association shall have two classes of membership (Class A Members and Class B Members) and such classes of membership shall be governed by the Restrictions.

2.2 Place of Meetings. Meetings of the Members shall be held at the time and place in or out of this state, stated in the notice of the meeting or in a waiver of notice. If no designation is made, or if a special meeting be otherwise called, the place of the meeting shall be the principal office of the Association.

2.3 Annual Meetings. An annual meeting of the Members shall be held at the principal office of the Association or at such other place as may be designated in writing by the Board of Directors, at the time and on a date designated by the Board any day in September. The purpose of the annual meetings shall be to elect directors and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting.

2.4 Notice of Meeting. Notice of the meeting, stating the place, day and hour of the meeting, and in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given in writing to each Member entitled to vote at the meeting at least ten (10) but not more than fifty (50) days before the date of the meeting either personally or by mail or other means of communication, addressed to the Member at their address appearing on the books of the Association or given by them to the Association for the purpose of notice. Notice of adjourned meetings is not necessary unless the meeting is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more, in which case notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of any special meeting.

2.5 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Members for any purpose or purposes whatsoever may be called at any time by the President, by the Board of Directors or the holders of not less than one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the total eligible votes of each class of membership of the Association. Business transacted at a special meeting shall be confined to the purposes stated in the notice of the meeting.

2.6 Quorum and Majority Vote. The Members holding ten percent (10%) of the total eligible votes of each class of membership of the Association, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the Members for the transaction of business, except as otherwise provided by law, by the Articles of Incorporation or by these Bylaws. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the Members, the Members entitled to vote there at, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have the power to adjourn the meeting from time to time without notice other than announcement at the meeting until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented by proxy business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified. The Members present at a duly constituted meeting may continue to transact business until adjournment, despite the withdrawal of enough Members to leave less than a quorum. The vote of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the members present, or represented by proxy at a meeting at which a quorum is present, shall be the act of the members meeting.

2.7 Method of Voting.

(a) Subject to the foregoing limitations the Class A Members shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each Lot in which they hold the interest required for membership. Prior to the Conversion Date, the Class B Member shall be entitled to ten (10) votes for each Lot it owns. From and after the Conversion Date, the Class B Member shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each Lot in which it holds the interest required for Association membership. No Owner shall be entitled to vote at any meeting of the Association until such Owner has presented evidence of ownership of a Lot to the Secretary of the Association. Any Member who is in default in the payment of any Assessment or any other sums owed to the Association may have his right to vote revoked by action of the Board of Directors, pending payment of such amounts.

(b) In the event that ownership interests in a Lot are owned by more than one Member of the Association, such Members shall exercise their right to vote in such manner as they may among themselves determine, but in no event shall more than the number of votes set forth in Section 2.7 be cast for each Lot. Such Members shall appoint one of them as the Member who shall be entitled to exercise the vote of that Lot at any meeting of the Association. Such designation shall be made in writing to the Board of Directors and shall be revocable at any time by actual written notice to the Board. The Board shall be entitled to rely on any such designation until written notice revoking such designation is received by the Board. In the event that a Lot is owned by more than one Member and no single Member is designated to vote on behalf of the Members having an ownership interest in such Lot, then none of such Members shall be allowed to vote. In the event that a vote is cast by only one of the Members having an ownership interest in a Lot and the other Members do not object, the Association shall be entitled to accept such vote as the vote of all Members having an ownership interest in the Lot.

(c) All Members of the Association may attend meetings of the Association and all voting Members may exercise their vote or votes at such meetings either in person or by proxy. Fractional votes and split votes will not be permitted. The decision of the Board of Directors as to the number of votes which any Member is entitled to cast, based upon the number of Lots owned by him, shall be final.

(d) At any meeting of the Members, every Member having the right to vote may vote either in person, or by proxy executed in writing by the Member or by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Each proxy shall be revocable unless expressly provided therein to be irrevocable or unless otherwise made irrevocable by law. Each proxy shall be filed with the Secretary of the Association prior to or at the time of the meeting. Voting for directors shall be in accordance with Section 3.7 of these Bylaws. Any vote may be taken by voice or by show of hands unless someone entitled to vote objects, in which case written ballots shall be used.

2.8 Organization. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Members. In his absence a Vice President shall preside. In the absence of all of these officers any Member or the duly appointed proxy of any Member may call the meeting to order and a chairman shall be elected from among the Members present.

The Secretary of the Association shall act as secretary at all meetings of the Members. In his absence an assistant secretary shall so act and in the absence of all of these officers the presiding officer may appoint any person to act as Secretary of the meeting.

2.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required by any provision of law or of the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws to be taken at a meeting of the Members or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the Members may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, shall be signed by a majority of the Members entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof, and such consent shall have the same force and effect as an unanimous vote of the Members. The consent may be in more than one counterpart.

2.10 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Members, directors and committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can communicate with each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at the meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

2.11 Order of Business at Meetings. The order of business at annual meetings and so far as practicable at other meetings of Members shall be as follows unless changed by the Board of Directors:

- (1) call to order;
- (2) proof of due notice of meeting;
- (3) determination of quorum and examination of proxies;
- (4) announcement of availability of voting list;
- (5) announcement of distribution of annual statement;
- (6) disposing of minutes of last meeting of Members;
- (7) reports of officers and committees;
- (8) special business, if any;
- (9) election of directors;
- (10) new business; and
- (11) adjournment.

ARTICLE THREE

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

3.1 Management. The property, business and affairs of the Association shall be managed by the Board of Directors (as such term is defined in the Texas Non-Profit Corporations Act, and "Director" means a member of the Board of Directors, and "Directors" means more than one of such members of the Board of Directors) who may exercise all such powers of the Association and do all such lawful acts and things as are not (by statute or by the Articles of Incorporation or by these Bylaws) directed or required to be exercised or done by the Members. The Directors shall have all of the powers, authority and duties of the Association existing under the Act, the Restrictions and these Bylaws, which shall be exercised exclusively by the Board, its agents, contractors or employees, subject only to approval by Members when such is specifically required by law, the Restrictions or these Bylaws.

3.2 Committees. In addition to the committees provided for in the Restrictions and these Bylaws, the Board of Directors may by resolution designate one (1) or more committees, each of which shall consist of two (2) or more Members, which committee, to the extent provided in said resolution, shall have and exercise the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Association; but the designation of such committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any individual director, of any responsibility imposed on it or him by law.

3.3 Number; Qualification; Election; Term. The Board of Directors shall initially consist of three (3) persons who need not be Members and the Directors shall serve one year terms. After the Conversion Date the Board of Directors shall consist of five (5) persons who all shall be Members. Two (2) Directors shall serve for a one (1) year term ("Class 1 Directors"), one (1) Director shall serve for a two (2) year term ("Class 2 Director") and two (2) Directors shall serve for a three (3) year term ("Class 3 Directors"). After the election of the initial Class 1 Directors and Class 2 Director, the term of office of the Class 1 Directors and Class 2 Director shall be three (3) years. The Directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Members, except the initial five Member Board of Directors shall be elected on the Conversion Date or as soon thereafter as a special meeting of Members may be called.

3.4 Change in Number. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to these Bylaws but no decrease shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director and provided that the Board of Directors may never consist of less than three (3) directors. Any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors shall be filled by election at an annual meeting or at a special meeting of Directors called for that purpose.

3.5 Removal. Any director may be removed either for or without cause at any special or annual meeting of Members, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the total eligible votes of each class of membership of the Association present, in person or by proxy, at such meeting and entitled to vote for the election of such director if notice of intention to act upon such matter shall have been given in the notice calling such meeting. Any vacancy created by the removal of a Director shall be filled by the vote of the Members at the meeting at which the Director is removed.

3.6 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors (by death, resignation, or otherwise) may be filled by an affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors though less than a quorum of the Board of Directors. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office.

3.7 Election of Directors. Directors shall be elected by majority vote of the Members present in person or by proxy at a meeting with a quorum of Members present. Cumulative voting shall not be permitted.

3.8 Place of Meetings. Meetings of the Board of Directors, regular or special, may be held in or out of the state of incorporation.

3.9 Annual Meetings. The first meeting of a newly elected board shall be held without further notice immediately following the annual meeting of Members, and at the same place, unless by unanimous consent of the directors then elected and serving, such newly elected directors agree to change the time and place of the meeting.

3.10 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and place as shall from time to time be determined by the board.

3.11 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President on three (3) days notice to each director, either personally or by mail or by e-mail. Special meetings shall be called by the President or Secretary in like manner and on like notice on the written request of two directors. Except as otherwise expressly provided by statute, Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws, neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting need be specified in a notice or waiver of notice.

3.12 Quorum; Majority Vote. At meetings of the Board of Directors a majority of the number of directors fixed by these Bylaws shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors, except as otherwise specifically provided by statute, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws. If a quorum is not present at a meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

3.13 Compensation. The Directors shall receive no compensation for serving as such. By resolution of the Board of Directors, the Directors may be paid their expenses, if any, of attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors.

3.14 Procedure. The President, or in his/her absence, the Vice President, or in the absence of both, any Director selected by the Directors present, shall preside at meetings of the Board of Directors. The Secretary of the Association, or in his/her absence, any person appointed by the presiding officer, shall act as Secretary of the Board of Directors and keep regular minutes of the proceedings. The minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the Association.

3.15 Action without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken without a meeting may be taken if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by all the members of the Board of Directors. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote at a meeting. The signed consent, or a signed copy, shall be placed in the minute book. The consent may be in more than one counterpart so long as each director signs one of the counterparts.

3.16 Presumption of Assent to Action. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless he shall file his written dissent to such action with the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by registered mail to the Secretary of the Association immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

ARTICLE FOUR

NOTICE

4.1 Method. Whenever by statute, the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or otherwise, notice is required to be given to a director, committee member, or security holder, and no provision is made as to how the notice shall be given, it shall not be construed to mean personal notice, but any such notice may be given: (a) in writing, by mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the director, committee member, or security holder at the address appearing on the books of the Association; or (b) in any other method permitted by law. Any notice required or permitted to be given by mail shall be deemed given at the time when the same is thus deposited in the United States mail.

4.2 Waiver. Whenever, by statute or the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, notice is required to be given to a security holder, committee member, or director, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated in such notice, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a person attends for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE FIVE

OFFICERS AND AGENTS

5.1 Number; Qualification; Election; Term.

(a) The Association shall have: (1) a President, a Vice President, a Secretary and a Treasurer; and (2) such other officers (including a chairman of the board and additional vice presidents) and assistant officers and agents as the Board of Directors may think necessary.

(b) No officer or agent need be a Member, a director or a resident of the state of incorporation.

(c) Officers named above shall be elected by the Board of Directors on the expiration of an officer's term or whenever a vacancy exists. Officers and agents named above may be elected by the Board at any meeting.

(d) Unless otherwise specified by the Board at the time of election or appointment, or in an employment contract approved by the Board, each officer's and agent's term shall end at the first meeting of directors after the next annual meeting of Members. He shall serve until the end of his term or, if earlier, his death, resignation, or removal.

(e) Any two or more offices may be held by the same person, except that the offices of President and Secretary shall not be held by the same person.

5.2 Removal. Any officer or agent elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interest of the Association will be served thereby. Such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed. Election or appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights.

5.3 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Association (by death, resignation, removal or otherwise) may be filled by the Board of Directors.

5.4 Authority. Officers and agents shall have such authority and perform such duties in the management by the Association of the Board of Directors not inconsistent with these Bylaws.

5.5 Compensation. The compensation of officers and agents shall be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

5.6 President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Association; he/she shall preside at all meetings of the Members and the Board of Directors, shall have general and active management of the business and affairs of the Association, and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the board are carried into effect. He/she shall perform such other duties and have such other authority and powers as the Board of Directors may from time to time prescribe.

5.7 Vice President. The vice presidents in the order of their seniority, unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, shall, in the absence or disability of the President, perform the duties and have the authority and exercise the powers of the President. They shall perform such other duties and have such other authority and powers as the Board of Directors may from time to time prescribe or as the President may from time to time delegate.

5.8 Secretary.

(a) The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and all meetings of the Members and record, or cause to be recorded, all votes, actions and the minutes of all proceedings in a book to be kept for that purpose and shall perform like duties for the executive and other committees when required.

(b) He/she shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the Members and special meetings of the Board of Directors.

(c) He/she shall keep in safe custody the seal of the Association and, when authorized by the Board of Directors or the executive committee, affix it to any instrument requiring it. When so affixed, it shall be attested by his signature or by the signature of the treasurer or an assistant secretary.

(d) He/she shall perform such other duties and have such other authority and powers as the Board of Directors may from time to time prescribe or as the President may from time to time delegate.

5.9 Treasurer.

(a) The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities, shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements of the Association, and shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, all funds and other valuables in the name and to the credit of the Association in depositories designated by the Board of Directors.

(b) He/she shall disburse, or cause to be disbursed, the funds of the Association as ordered by the Board of Directors, and prepare, or cause to be prepared, financial statements as they direct.

(c) If required by the Board of Directors he shall give the Association a bond (in such form, in such sum, and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board) for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Association, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Association.

(d) He/she shall perform such other duties and have such other authority and powers as the Board of Directors may from time to time prescribe or as the President may from time to time delegate.

ARTICLE SIX

GENERAL PROVISIONS

6.1 Reserves. By resolution the Board of Directors may create such reserve or reserves out of the earned surplus of the Association as the directors from time to time, in their discretion, think proper to provide for contingencies, or to repair or maintain any property of the Association, or for any other purpose they think beneficial to the Association. The directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

6.2 Books and Records. The Association shall keep correct and complete books and records of account, shall keep minutes of the proceedings of its Members and Board of Directors, and shall keep at its registered office or principal place of business, or at the office of its transfer agent or registrar, a record of its Members, giving the names and addresses of all Members and the number of votes held by each.

6.3 Checks and Notes. Checks, demands for money, and notes of the Association shall be signed by officer(s) or other person(s) designated from time to time by the Board of Directors.

6.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Association shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

6.5 Seal. The Association seal (of which there may be one or more exemplars) shall contain the name of the Association and the name of the state of incorporation. The seal may be used by impressing it or reproducing a facsimile of it, or otherwise.

6.6 Resignation. A director, committee member, officer or agent may resign by giving written notice to the President or the Secretary. The resignation shall take effect at the time specified in it, or immediately if no time is specified. Unless it specifies otherwise, a resignation takes effect without being accepted.

6.7 Amendment of Bylaws.

(a) These Bylaws may be altered, amended, or repealed at any meeting of the Board of Directors at which a quorum is present, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present at such meeting, provided notice of the proposed alteration, amendment, or repeal is contained in the notice of the meeting and such action does not specifically require the action of the Members by virtue of the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. Also, such action may be taken pursuant to Article 3.15 herein.

(b) These Bylaws may also be altered, amended or repealed at any meeting of the Members at which a quorum is present or represented, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the total eligible votes of each class of membership of the Association present or represented at the meeting and entitled to vote thereat, provided notice of the proposed alteration, amendment or repeal is contained in the notice of the meeting.

6.8 Liability and Indemnification.

(a) A director of the Association shall not be personally liable to the Association or its Members for monetary damages for any acts or omissions in his capacity as director, except to the extent otherwise expressly provided by Tex. Rev. Civ. Stat. Art. 1302-7.06(B), as amended from time to time.

(b) To the fullest extent permitted by Section B and E of Article 2.22A of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, the Association shall indemnify each person who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding because the person is or was a director of the corporation, and this provision for indemnification shall be deemed to constitute authorization of such indemnification in the manner required by Section G of said Article 2.22A of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act.

(c) To the fullest extent permitted by Section K of Article 2.22A of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, reasonable expenses incurred by a director of the Association who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding shall be paid or reimbursed by the Association, in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding, after the Association receives a written affirmation by the director of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by the Association and the Association receives a written undertaking by or on behalf of the director to repay the amount paid or reimbursed if it is ultimately determined that he has not met that standard or if it is ultimately determined that indemnification of the director against expenses incurred by him in connection with that proceeding is otherwise prohibited by said Article 2.22A of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act. This provision for payment or reimbursement shall be deemed to constitute authorization of such payment or reimbursement as provided by said Section K of Article 2.22A of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act.

(d) Pursuant to Section O of Article 2.22A of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, the Association shall indemnify and advance expenses to an officer of the Association to the same extent that the Association shall indemnify and pay or reimburse expenses to directors of the Association as set forth in subsections (b) and (c) hereinabove.

(e) To the fullest extent permitted by Section N of Article 2.22A of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, the Association shall pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a director or officer in connection with his appearance as a witness or other participation, only in his capacity as a director or officer of the Association, in a proceeding at a time when he is not a named defendant or respondent in the proceeding as set out therein.

(f) In addition to the foregoing, the Association hereby adopts all other terms, provisions and authorizations of Article 2.22A of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, not in conflict with subsections (b), (c), (d) and (e) hereinabove, including but not limited to Sections H, I, J and O of said Article 2.22A of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act. It is the intention of the Association to provide the maximum indemnification allowed by law to its directors and officers and to make mandatory in all instances any permissive provisions of Article 2.22A of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act for the benefit of the Association's directors and officers.

(g) Any amendment or repeal of this Section 6.8 shall be prospective only and shall not adversely affect any limitation of the personal liability of a director or the indemnification or reimbursement of any director or officer of the Association for events existing at the time of or occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

(h) In the event Tex. Rev. Civ. Stat. Art. 1302-7.06(B) or any provision of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act set out in this Section 6.8 is amended, altered or repealed in any way, then any such amendment, alteration or repeal shall be incorporated herein without the necessity of any further action by the Association upon the effective date of such action.

6.9 Construction. Whenever the context so requires, the masculine shall include the feminine and neuter, and the singular shall include the plural, and conversely. If any portion of these Bylaws shall be invalid or inoperative, then, so far as is reasonable and possible:

- (a) The remainder of these Bylaws shall be considered valid and operative, and
- (b) Effect shall be given to the intent manifested by the portion held invalid or inoperative.

6.10 Table of Contents; Headings. The table of contents and headings are for organization, convenience and clarity. In interpreting these Bylaws, they shall be subordinated in importance to the other written material.

6.11 Relation to Other Documents. These Bylaws are subject to, and governed by, the Articles of Incorporation and the Restrictions.

INSTRUMENT TO RECORD DEDICATORY INSTRUMENTS

This Instrument is being recorded by Villages at Lakepointe Community Association, Inc., a Texas nonprofit corporation (the "Association") pursuant to Section 202.006 of the Texas Property Code (the "Code").

Section 202.006 of the Code requires a property owners' association to file each dedicatory instrument in the real property records of each county in which the property to which the dedicatory instrument relates is located, if such instrument has not been previously recorded.

Restrictive covenants and other matters concerning the encumbered property and/or Association are set forth in previously recorded dedicatory instruments described as follows:

Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions for Villages at Lakepointe filed for record in the office of the county clerk of Harris County, Texas under Clerk's File No. _____.

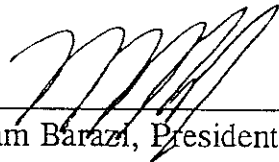

This Association is currently subject to the following dedicatory instruments which have not been previously recorded:

1. Articles of Incorporation, as amended
2. Bylaws
3. ACC and building guidelines

Pursuant to Section 202.006 of the Code, the Association does hereby record such additional dedicatory instruments, copies of which are attached hereto. Each dedicatory instrument attached hereto, and the previously recorded restrictive covenants, is subject to amendment pursuant to the amendatory procedures applicable thereto.

Executed on _____, 2000.
